

ORCA Fall 2022 Conference

Exploring the Many Facets of Trauma

November 17th - 19th
Mark Spencer Hotel , Portland, OR

Thursday 11.17.22

3 CEs

3:00pm - 4:30pm: Destructive Cults, Psychological Coercion, Spiritual Abuse and Role of the Mental Health Clinician
Presented by Dr. Margaret Eichler

4:45pm - 6:15pm: A Nature Based Perspective on Trauma
Presented by Alice Nelson

6:15pm - 6:45pm: Networking Break

6:45pm - 8:15pm: Healing with Play: A survey of trauma-informed Kink healing methods
Presented by Fredrick Zal and Stephen Ratcliff

Friday 11.18.22

7.5 CEs

Registration begins at 8:00am

9:00am - 10:30am: Improve Trauma Outcomes in Three Steps
Presented by Tabatha Bird Weaver

10:40am - 12:10pm: Who is Seen or Not Seen: Healing layers of trauma for immigrant, refugee, and migrant populations
Presented by Dr. Yun Shi and Emiko Goka-Dubos

1:30pm - 3:00: When Does Black Crack: Understanding the profound neurological, biological, psychological, and social effects of systemic racial trauma on African American Women -
Presented by Portia Jones

3:10pm - 4:40pm: New Frontiers: Ketamine Assisted Psychotherapy for Trauma
Presented by Dr. Catherine Beckett

4:50pm - 6:20pm: Religious Trauma: Causes, Effects, and Recovery
Presented by Sarah Williams

Saturday 11.19.22

6 CEs

Registration begins at 8:00am

9:00am - 10:30am: Trauma and Climate Crisis
Presented by Greg Peterson

10:45am - 12:15pm: Trauma and Psychosis: Understanding the Connections and Promoting Recovery
Presented by Ron Unger

12:00pm - 3:30pm: Attending to Emotions in Trauma Therapy
Presented by Sarah Alexander

3:45pm - 5:15pm: Trauma and Grief during COVID-19: The impact on the Latino Immigrant Community
Presented by Maria Leija Briones